EINPresswire.com/ -- Bruklin, born on April 17, 2008, in New Jersey, is an emerging pop star with a rapidly growing presence in the music industry. Her passion for entertainment was evident from an early age, leading her to perform on various television shows for reputable companies at just 11 years old, capturing the attention of both audiences and industry professionals.

She has also demonstrated her acting talents in the film "My Mother is Cosmonaut", starring alongside William Baldwin. A gifted vocalist, Bruklin began her musical career with a standout performance of Imagine Dragons' "Believer" at age 12. Now 16, she continues to captivate audiences with her unique voice and artistic vision.

Her single, "Stay Friends", showcases her vocal prowess and lyrical depth.

Her other single, "Magic Show", accompanied by an enchanting music video, further establishes her as a rising star in the pop music scene. Bruklin's newest release, "No Contact", showcases
