About Amitābha Studio

Amitābha Studio was founded by husband and wife creative team, Davide Piai and Kimberly Poppe, who share a passion for bringing beauty into everyday life. Their journey began on a winter's night in Amsterdam when they recognized the importance of lighting in uplifting spirits. Unable to find lamps that they loved, they began crafting their own, inspired by the rich history of Dutch Delftware.

Based in Amsterdam, the studio specializes in transforming antique and vintage Dutch ceramic vases into luxurious, one-of-a-kind lamps. Each piece is meticulously handcrafted, blending historical significance with contemporary design to create truly unique lighting solutions.
