PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, September 25, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Sarah Sweeney-Denham, Head of School at Greene Towne Montessori School, has been honored as a 2024 Woman of Influence Award Winner by Philadelphia Family. This prestigious award recognizes local women who inspire and empower others through their dedication, leadership, and achievements. Winners were selected based on their demonstrated drive, ability to inspire others, and resilience in the face of obstacles.

Head of Greene Towne Montessori School Sarah Sweeney-Denham

"I am very honored to have received this award among these amazing women leaders. As a school leader, I am tending to a community of families and educators. Our school has navigated major challenges in the past few years, including a destructive flood, temporary facilities, and a mid-year, full school move to our new home. I am so proud of Greene Towne's educators and administrators who met and overcame each challenge, while prioritizing the education of young children throughout," said Sweeney-Denham. "I am thankful for this affirmation of our work."

Sweeney-Denham was honored at the 2024 Women of Influence Award Winners Luncheon today at Terrain Devon. The Winners will also be featured in the Women of Influence Guides which can be found in the Main Line Parent, Philadelphia Family, and Bucks County Parent Community magazine's Fall 2024 Issue and online at phillyfamily.com/women.

Kernika Gupta, President of Greene Towne's Board of Trustees, expressed her sentiments about the honor. "Sarah's dedication to fostering an empowering learning environment, and unwavering commitment to the school, has made a tremendous impact on the entire Greene Towne community. This recognition is a testament to her passion for childhood education and as a dynamic leader."

About Sarah Sweeney-Denham and Greene Towne Montessori School
Sarah Sweeney-Denham is entering her 7th year as the Head of School at Greene Towne Montessori.
