Tobias International, the leading provider of SolarWinds consulting and advisory services since 2010, leverages its extensive SolarWinds best practice knowledge to offer SolarWinds customers an hour-long complimentary assessment and optimization session. Based on this assessment, Tobias International can provide a list of easy-to-implement recommendations that provide for immediate performance improvements as well as a reduction of meaningless alerts (false positives). This results in a more functional SolarWinds platform by notifying IT professionals of real problems.
