

DIANE S. VANN'S POLITICAL NON-FICTION BOOK TO MAKE DEBUT AT TWO GLOBAL BOOK FAIRS THIS FALL

"Undermining the U.S. Constitution" is set to make waves at The 76th Frankfurt Book Fair and The Word On The Street's 35th Annual Festival

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA,
September 25, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- For the first time, retired nurse turned author and political commentator Diane S. Vann will bring her bold and timely work, "Undermining the U.S. Constitution: How the Communist Manifesto of 1848 Blueprints the Actions of the Democratic Party" to two of the world's premier book fairs: The Word On The Street's 35th Annual Festival and the 76th Frankfurt Book Fair.

Undermining the U.S. Constitution by Diane S. Vann

This marks a major milestone for Vann as she joins the global literary circuit, debuting her work at Canada's largest celebration of literacy and at Frankfurt, the world's biggest book fair. Her participation in these prestigious events underscores the growing relevance of her analysis, which explores the ideological battle between the U.S. Constitution and the Communist Manifesto.

Diane S. Vann, a U.S. Army Vietnam Era Veteran, draws on her life experiences to critically examine Marxist ideas she believes are eroding America's founding principles. Her book compares the core beliefs of the Constitution with those of the Communist Manifesto, warning readers of the persistent threat of Marxism within the United States. Vann likens communism to a cancer spreading silently but steadily through the nation.

Vann's "Undermining the U.S. Constitution: How the Communist Manifesto of 1848 Blueprints the Actions of the Democratic Party" will take center stage at The Word On The Street Toronto

Book and Magazine Festival on September 28-29, 2024. Visitors can stop by The Maple Staple booth at Queen's Park Crescent East in Zone B, near Stage B: Across The Universe, to explore Vann's bold critique in a marketplace bustling with over 100 exhibitors, including publishers, literary figures, and authors.

After its Toronto debut, Vann's work will also be featured at the Frankfurt Book Fair at Messe, Frankfurt from October 16-20, 2024, at The Maple Staple booth in Hall 5.1, Stand #C35. As the world's largest book fair, attracting exhibitors from over 100 countries, the Frankfurt Book Fair provides a global stage for Vann's urgent political message. Readers attending this prestigious event will have the opportunity to receive a complimentary copy of her book.

For Diane S. Vann, this foray into global book fairs is a significant step in amplifying her message. A graduate of the University of Nebraska Medical Center and the University of Tennessee, Vann has dedicated much of her life to nursing, health promotion, and political activism. Her 2010 congressional run and bold stance against President Obama cemented her reputation as a staunch defender of American constitutional values. Now, through her book, she aims to raise awareness of the threats she believes are undermining the freedoms and opportunities afforded by the Constitution.

This fall, as Vann steps onto the international literary stage, she invites readers worldwide to engage in a vital conversation about the future of a representative republic versus a democracy versus a dictatorship. Her book, "Undermining the U.S. Constitution: How the Communist Manifesto of 1848 Blueprints the Actions of the Democratic Party" is available on Amazon and other leading online bookstores.
