

Indisputable with Dr. Rashad Richey wins for Best News and Politics Podcast

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 3, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, TYT Network, America's largest and longest-running online news network, announced a new achievement for one of its flagship programs. Indisputable with Dr. Rashad Richey has received the Best News & Politics award from the Black Podcasting Awards. Indisputable was nominated for its ability to break down complex stories and integral events while offering diverse perspectives.

Indisputable focuses on the most pressing issues surrounding race, systemic bias, and social justice. The daily news program features fiery debates with conservative voices, penetrating news analysis, and community-sourced exclusive stories.

Dr. Richey, an Emmy-nominated broadcaster, was recently awarded the 5th Estate New Media Award by the Multicultural Media & Correspondents Association, sponsored by Comcast Universal. He also received the Global Icon Award by Black Media Honors and was recognized by the White House for his work with gang-affected youth and social advocacy. In 2023 Indisputable with Dr. Rashad Richey was named the fastest-growing news show in America by The Hicks Evaluation Group. According to the podcast rating company Listen Notes, the Indisputable podcast also has over one million downloads and forty thousand unique monthly listeners, firmly placing it in the top 1% of all podcasts globally. On YouTube, Indisputable has 20 million views, 140 million impressions, and 1.5 million monthly viewing hours. On its linear channels, including Samsung TV Plus, Roku, YouTube TV, Xumo, and TCLtv+, Indisputable averages 2 million views monthly.

In light of this most recent award, the founder of TYT Network, Cenk Uygur, said:

"We are proud of our partnership with Dr. Rashad Richey. His success is a win for our network and the community of supporters and listeners who helped Indisputable grow into what it is today.”

Dr. Rashad Richey also issued a statement saying:

“It's an honor to receive this national recognition from the Black Podcast Awards, an organization dedicated to amplifying the voices of Black content creators. My ‘Indisputable’ production team is the best in the business, and words cannot express how much I appreciate them. When you have a network like TYT that understands the mission and an audience of truth seekers and truth sayers, it makes for an unstoppable combination!”

With this latest award, Indisputable further cemented itself as a trusted and well-respected news source within the digital media landscape.
