"We've poured our passion into creating an intense, skill-driven shooter that players will find both challenging and exhilarating." "

Bruce Morrison, Co-Founder

Exovoid Carnage strands players on a mysterious, planet-sized facility where they must fight off hordes of alien creatures in a fast-paced and intense battle for survival. Featuring remarkable visuals and powerful sound design, Exovoid Carnage pulls players into the heart of chaotic battles, where waves of enemies and explosive action push their skills to the limit.

What sets Exovoid Carnage apart from other arena shooters is its emphasis on quick reflexes, strategic thinking, and its unique replay mechanic. Survival requires not just sharp shooting skills but the ability to adapt to evolving challenges. Each defeat grants players a replay bonus, empowering them to become stronger with every run. As they unlock a range of weapons and power-ups, players can customize their approach and craft new strategies to face increasingly difficult enemies.

"We are thrilled to finally share Exovoid Carnage with the world," said Bruce Morrison, co-founder of Man Up Time Studios. "We've poured our passion into creating an intense, skill-driven shooter that players will find both challenging and exhilarating. We're excited for everyone to experience the high-stakes combat and survival mechanics."

Exovoid Carnage will be available for purchase on September 30th on Steam and the Mac App Store. Man Up Time Studios invites all gamers to dive into the action and put their skills to the test in this exciting new game.
