SWIFT CURRENT, SASKATCHEWAN, CANADA, September 26, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Western Living Magazine named Jeanie Andronyk the 2024 Designer of the Year in the fashion category.

The award recognizes the best designers in Western Canada in jewelry and fashion, interior design, architecture, furniture, industrial design and fine art.

Jeanie Andronyk merges the physical and digital by linking her jewelry to NFTs.

The winners of each category were announced in the September issue of Western Living Magazine and celebrated at an awards party in Vancouver.

"I am honored to be recognized for my work among such a talented community of designers and makers." says Jeanie Andronyk, Artist & Owner of Andronyk Studio.

One of the judges, Gabrielle Bayona notes, "With solid gold jewelry becoming more popular, the use of not only recycled gold but also ARM-certified gold (Alliance of Responsible Mining) makes this collection a cut above—prioritizing ethical sourcing without sacrificing on style."
