About Bertha Mae's:

In 1880, a little girl named Bertha Mae was born in Hope, Arkansas. As she grew, she perfected a brownie recipe that became a family treasure, passed down through the generations. Her daughter shared it with her children, including Wendy Pomerantz's mom, who then passed it to Wendy.

Over a century later, Wendy Pomerantz and her family have brought this cherished recipe to the world by founding Bertha Mae's Brownie Co. While new flavors and treats have been added over time, the essence of Bertha Mae's original creation remains unchanged. Each batch of the Original brownies stays true to the recipe passed down through the generations, carrying on Bertha Mae's legacy.
