UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, September 30, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- XS.com, the global leader in multi-asset brokerage, has today announced a partnership with technology provider “Brokeree” to provide copy trading to its global client base.

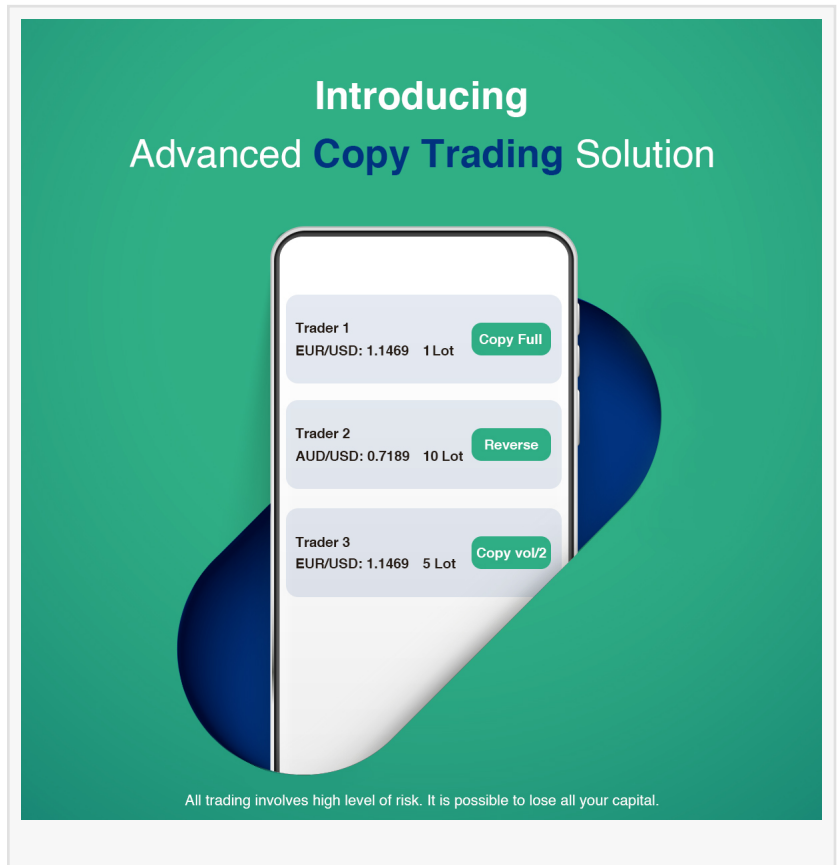

This collaboration marks XS.com's mission to enhance its suite of trading services, aiming to provide clients with innovative tools that foster growth, enable informed decision-making, and simplify access to advanced trading strategies.

The integration of Brokeree's Copy Trading solution is just one part of XS.com's broader strategy to enhance its platform and provide clients with state-of-the-art tools designed to improve trading performance.
