President and CEO of The DCRO Institute*

Jacqueline is the managing partner of Leap s.a.r.l, a business consultancy, and prior to that role, she served as the chief administrative officer for C.A.T. Group, in the pipeline & contracting industry in the Middle East. She has also served as the head of Group HR for Fattal Group, a major distributor of FMCGs & international pharmaceuticals, and for Bank Audi. She has also served as an advisor on human capital to the Minister of Telecommunications in Lebanon, She is a SHRM-SCP, a certified executive coach, a psychometric assessor and certified trainer. She has held board roles in NGOs such as the Human Resource Association of Lebanon (HRAL) and the International Coach Federation, Lebanon Chapter. Jacqueline earned her BE in Civil Engineering from American University in Beirut and her MPA from the Harvard Kennedy School. She was a member of the DCRO Institute's Middle East/Africa guided study cohort program.

"Jacqueline brings an important focus on human capital and development to her work," said David R. Koenig, QRD®, president and chief executive officer of the DCRO Institute. "Across her diverse experiences and academic work, she brings a unique expertise to how people work in challenging settings and where risk-taking is necessary."

The Certificate in Risk Governance® is awarded to those who have completed The Board Members' Course on Risk® - an intensive 17-course education program and evaluation. The curriculum is designed for current and aspiring board members who seek to advance the governance of risk-taking at their organizations and those who interact with boards. Taught by some of the world's leading figures in risk governance, the program features lessons by nearly 50 board members, C-level executives, and well-known authors from five continents. No course on risk for board members as robust as this - depth, practicality, and global expertise - exists anywhere else.

"This is a very rich program for anyone who enjoys a self-disciplined and self-paced learning program and a rich network of risk professionals," said Ms. Moukheiber. "The lecturers are experts with depth in their field and they bring forward a mix of academic and professional experience. I really enjoyed the course and will continue using the material, books, links, and connections as references. I strongly encourage professionals to take this course," she continued.
