In Better Times: Seven Stories delves into the turbulent journey of Paul Pope, who grapples with a series of challenging events and encounters as he seeks to break free from a destiny shaped by poverty and past mistakes. The narrative follows Paul's evolution through a period marked by both success and adversity. As he navigates his complicated life, Paul crosses paths with a colorful cast of characters, including Walter Beiderweil, a New Orleans mortician; Billy Bob Buckmaster, an itinerant Texas preacher; retired Army General James Scrog; newspaperman Albert Breaux; fiery convenience store clerk Lisa Sun Ling; and his twin brother John.

Despite moments of triumph and recognition, Paul's life takes dark turns, including murder and personal turmoil. A particularly dramatic incident on a golf course in the Big Easy serves as a turning point, prompting deep reflection on the nature of existence and the possibility of being “murdered twice.” Through gripping storytelling and vivid character portrayals, Hinrichs explores the complexities of fate, identity, and resilience.

Ken Hinrichs’s In Better Times: Seven Stories promises to captivate audiences with its rich narrative and intriguing characters. Join us at The Word On The Street Toronto Book and Magazine Festival and The 76th Frankfurt Book Fair to experience this remarkable work.
