From October 24-27, 2024, HS3FF'24 will transform Houston into a vibrant hub of creativity, offering a family-friendly celebration of short filmmaking. The festival will kick off with a spectacular Opening Night at The AllNatt Venue, featuring a purple carpet event, gourmet food, live entertainment, and a showcase of the year's most anticipated short films.

HS3FF'24 promises a weekend filled with cinematic discovery, including a diverse lineup of films suitable for all ages.

Film blocks will be complemented by Q&A sessions with filmmakers and panel discussions with industry leaders, providing invaluable insights into the art of filmmaking. The festival is designed to be an inclusive space where families and film enthusiasts can explore the power of storytelling together.

The culmination of the festival will be the Gala Night hosted by Sara Shouhayib Alawar, promising an evening of elegance and excitement. Attendees will enjoy award-winning films, a lavish dinner, and an exclusive after-party, making it a perfect occasion for families to create lasting memories.

Sara expressed her excitement about her role at the festival, stating, "It's an honor to host an event that celebrates such powerful and inspiring stories. I look forward to connecting with the audience and filmmakers alike, making this year's festival a memorable gathering of creative minds."
