installations not only serve functional purposes but also act as stunning visual centerpieces. Ice Trade has added a new state of the art CNC machine called an ICE MONGER (www.icemonger.com) to their lineup of tools. This helps them create intricate logos and designs that cannot be replicated by hand.

The business is ramping up production of their specialty ice block making machines to be ready for the influx of sales during the holiday season. Each block weighing in at 300lbs means that they have some heavy lifting to knock out before Santa comes to town.

"We are thrilled to expand our services beyond traditional ice production," said a Scott G. a founding member from The Ice Trade once referred to as just a bartender with a dream is now becoming somewhat of the areas ice guru. "These new offerings allow us to cater to a wider range of events and enhance the overall guest experience through innovation and creativity."
