

TransTech Launches Donation Drive for American Red Cross to Aid Hurricane Victims in Western North Carolina

To support Western North Carolina residents, TransTech will collect donations at their campuses in Charlotte, Gastonia, and Newton.

CHARLOTTE, NC, UNITED STATES, September 30, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- TransTech, the largest truck driver training school in North Carolina, is stepping up to support those affected by Hurricane Helene. The company will collect essential donations at three of its campuses—Gastonia, Newton, and Charlotte—from 10 AM to 4 PM, starting Monday, September 30th.

"There is an immediate need for crucial supplies for nearly one million residents of Western North Carolina impacted by the devastation of Hurricane Helene," said Bob Boniface, Co-CEO and CFO of TransTech. "There are charitable community groups on the ground helping people throughout the region, and we want to support their efforts in any way that we can."

Tyrel Sulzer, Co-CEO and COO of TransTech, added, "We are collecting non-perishable foods, water, baby supplies, hygiene products, personal care products, cleaning supplies, and more. We currently have staff members volunteering on the ground, and we are proud of their efforts. Acting as a collection center will help get products quickly to those who need them most."
