

Try Out the Future of Lab Efficiency at the Gulf Coast Conference 2024

Discover how LabTwin can transform your organization's operations and elevate safety standards

NEWARK, DE, UNITED STATES, October 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LIMS Wizards, a global scientific software solutions provider, is attending the Gulf Coast Conference to showcase LabTwin, the AI-powered and voice-activated digital lab assistant. LabTwin can improve your organization's efficiency with mobile and hands-free data capture and access, while also protecting personnel who don't have to remove safety equipment to log observational data. LabTwin has many applications in the chemical and petrochemical industries, including analytical method development, maintenance operations and monitoring, or automatic data processing and reporting.

The Gulf Coast Conference offers a robust technical program to professionals in the chemical and petrochemical industries. This year's show takes place October 15 and 16 at the Moody Gardens Convention Center in Galveston, Texas. LIMS Wizards will be demonstrating LabTwin at booth 1121. While at the booth, attendees can register for an upcoming Ask the Expert session on November 6, 2024, with Jeroen de Haas,
