LANCASTER, CA, UNITED STATES, October 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Krump Society Collaborates with Local and International Communities for Youth Success and Family Unity in Preparation for #krump4theolympics #LA28

Krump Society, a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting the art of Krump, is proud to announce its partnership with local and international communities in an effort to support the success of youth and bring families together.

With the goal of making Krump an Olympic sport by 2028, the organization is working tirelessly to provide opportunities for young krumpers to showcase their talents and gain recognition on a global scale.

We Don't listen to words we listen to actions! Dance Is A Action and stays in motion are you listening?”

As part of their efforts, Krump Society is excited to introduce the first generation of kids they have been working with - 6ixvil. These talented young krumpers will be showcased at the upcoming 6ixvil Draft Day event on October 13, 2024 at 7:30pm at Antelope Valley College. This event will not only serve as a platform for these young dancers to showcase their skills, but also as a celebration of their hard work and dedication to the art of Krump as well as open opportunity for others to join in the success.

Krump Society's collaboration with local and international communities is a testament to their commitment to promoting unity and success among the youth. By providing opportunities for young krumpers to showcase their talents, the organization hopes to inspire and empower the next generation of dancers. With the support of the community, Krump Society is confident in their mission to make krumping an Olympic sport by 2028 and bring recognition to this unique and powerful art form.

Krump Society invites everyone to join them in supporting the youth and their families at the 6ixvil Draft Day event. This event is not only a celebration of Krump, but also a celebration of unity and success within the community. For more information about Krump Society and their upcoming events, please visit their website at www.krumpsociety.org.

Join Krump Society in their mission to make Krump an Olympic sport and support the youth and their families. Let's come together and show the world the power and beauty of Krump. #krump4theolympics #LA28 #weoutside.
