Christòpheren has moved audiences around the world with his immense talent, charm and wit. I cannot express how excited I am to have him share his musical journeys through classical and Broadway music.”

Michelle Kim, Artistic Director

"PAFL is thrilled to have Christòpheren as the first vocalist in our new venue. We are quite excited about this event and to experience his virtuosity", added Jim Silk, PAFL President.

About Christòpheren Nomura

Hailed as one of classical music's "Rising Stars" by The Wall Street Journal, Christòpheren Nomura has appeared in opera, oratorio, recital and music festivals throughout the world. Opera roles have included Papageno, Figaro, Marcello, Malatesta, Mercutio, Don Giovanni and Guglielmo with such companies as Seattle Opera, San Francisco Opera, Dallas Opera, Cincinnati Opera and German opera houses in Hamburg, Berlin and Kiel. In oratorio, Mr. Nomura has appeared as soloist with such noted orchestras as Boston Symphony, Boston Pops, San Francisco Symphony, Utah Symphony, Minnesota Orchestra, Philadelphia Orchestra and St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, among many others in works ranging from Monteverdi's Vespers, Handel's Messiah, Bach's St. Matthew Passion to Philip Glass's Symphony No. 5 and Frank Martin's Sechs Monologe aus Jedermann.

Upcoming concerts this year include performances of Brahms' Requiem with the Washington National Orchestra at the Kennedy Center, Handel's L'Allegro with Chicago's Music of the Baroque, Bach's St. John Passion at the National Cathedral and Mahler's Lieder eines fahrenden Gesellen with the Pacific Symphony. Mr. Nomura is a recipient of the highest post-graduate award from New England Conservatory, as well as winner of the prestigious Young Concert Artists International, Naumburg Competition, and International Fulbright Scholarship which enabled him to study with renowned baritone Dietrich Fischer Dieskau.

About Karen Linstedt Delavan
