artist and his benefactor's wife.

Bill E. Wright's fascination with history and storytelling stems from his career as an English and History teacher. Inspired by his own family ancestry and the curiosity of his granddaughter, Bill created Katie Cooper, Time Traveler to ignite a passion for history in young readers. He aims to highlight the often-overlooked contributions of women throughout history, providing a powerful narrative that encourages young girls to explore and learn from the past.

Through Katie Cooper's adventures, Bill E. Wright seeks to inspire young girls to recognize their potential. Katie's story portrays a strong, intelligent, and resourceful young woman, demonstrating that they, too, are capable of achieving great things. By looking to the past and learning from the accomplishments of remarkable women, readers can find role models and lessons that resonate with their own lives.
