

CGT Global Sponsors Renown Health Foundation's Inaugural Golf Classic to Benefit Conrad Breast Center

CGT Global sponsors Renown Health's inaugural Golf Classic, raising funds for the Conrad Breast Center to bring advanced cancer care locally to Reno, NV.

RENO, NV, UNITED STATES, October 2, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CGT Global, a leader in cell and gene therapy solutions, was proud to announce its sponsorship of Renown Health Foundation's inaugural Golf Classic held at The Club at ArrowCreek on September 30th. Hall of Fame golfer Annika Sorenstam served as the Honorary Chair –which raised funds for the development of Renown's new Conrad Breast Center, set to open in 2025.

“We were proud to sponsor the Golf Classic in support of Renown Health Foundation. As a company dedicated to advancing cancer treatments and cures through innovative healthcare options including cell and gene therapy, CGT Global is honored to help bring these cures one step closer to the community” said Cate Spears. “The new Conrad Breast Center means that the best and latest treatments will soon be available here in Reno. We are so happy to be sponsoring this cause.”

We are proud to sponsor the Golf Classic and support bringing life-saving breast cancer treatments closer to our community.”

Cate Spears, CEO of CGT Global

Providing support for the opening of Renown's much needed Conrad Breast Center is central to CGT Global's mission of bringing life-saving treatments to local communities. By sponsoring Renown Health Foundation's Inaugural Golf Classic, CGT Global aims to demonstrate its dedication to both scientific advancement and improving patient outcomes.

CGT Global and Ms. Spears encourage others to follow this link to help contribute to the expansion of cancer care services in Reno, NV. The Conrad Breast Center, scheduled to open in 2025 at Renown South Meadows Medical Center in Reno, will offer state-of-the-art breast cancer treatments and provide accessible care for local patients.
