What is the WOTC Optimization Audit?

The WOTC Optimization Audit is a comprehensive review of an existing Work Opportunity Tax Credit program. Our goal is to identify areas for improvement and provide actionable strategies to enhance the existing WOTC processes. By submitting at least one year's worth of a current WOTC programs reports, Rockerbox's optimization experts will analyze the data and deliver a detailed WOTC Optimization Audit Report.

What We Analyze:

Upon receiving current WOTC reports, our WOTC Optimization experts will review and analyze the following key areas:

1. Hiring Process: Assessing the efficiency of existing hiring practices to ensure optimal WOTC capture.

2. Onboarding Process: Evaluating how new employees are integrated and their potential WOTC eligibility is documented.

3. WOTC Screening Process: Analyzing the thoroughness and accuracy of current WOTC screening methods.

4. WOTC Screening Integration: Examining how well WOTC screening is integrated into the overall hiring and onboarding workflows.

5. WOTC Screening Percentage: Reviewing the proportion of new hires that are screened for WOTC eligibility.

6. WOTC-Eligibility Data: Analyzing the accuracy and completeness of existing WOTC-related data.

7. WOTC Certification Process: Assessing the steps taken to ensure eligible employees are certified for WOTC.

8. WOTC Certification Percentage: Reviewing the success rate of current WOTC certification efforts.

9. Average Tax Credit: Calculating the average tax credit obtained per certified employee.

10. 120-hour Milestone: Evaluating strategies to ensure employees reach the 120-hour work threshold for WOTC eligibility.

11. 400-hour Milestone: Analyzing strategies to help employees reach the 400-hour work milestone for maximum WOTC benefits.

12. Challenge Process: Assessing existing methods for contesting denied WOTC certifications.

13. Target Group Penetration: Reviewing the success in targeting and hiring from WOTC-eligible groups.
