

JAMNOLA® to Close Royal St. Location at End of 2024

Extends 50% off Thursdays Locals pricing to all weekdays for final months.

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, October 2, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- JAMNOLA®, New Orleans' cultural funhouse that debuted in August 2020, has announced the closure of its original location at 2832 Royal Street by the end of December 2024. Since its opening during the peak of the pandemic, JAMNOLA™ has welcomed hundreds of thousands of visitors from around the globe, becoming a beloved city gem and top New Orleans' tourist attraction.

Founders Jonny Liss and Chad Smith are excited to share that a new chapter for JAMNOLA® will unfold on Frenchmen Street, with all new artists and environments coming in early 2025.

A full announcement detailing the new JAMNOLA® Frenchmen experience and artists involved will be released in early November.

JAMNOLA® encourages locals and tourists to visit before the exhibits close in December 2024. To ensure as many locals as possible can experience the original exhibits before they're gone, JAMNOLA® is extending its "Locals Thursdays" pricing of 50% off full price tickets for Louisianans on weekdays (Monday, Thursday and Friday).

Locals can purchase the discounted "Locals" ticket at JamNola.com and just need to show a valid drivers license or ID during check-in for for the discount to be honored. JAMNOLA® is open for tours Thursday-Monday.

In a further gesture of community support, JAMNOLA® plans to donate 504 tickets to local nonprofits aiding individuals facing financial hardship, allowing them the opportunity to also
