As soccer's popularity continues to surge, especially among youth athletes, this collaboration aims to meet the growing demand for elite training environments. Together, CatchCorner and TOCA are simplifying the process for players of all levels to secure access to these top-tier facilities.

While the collaboration focuses on all locations, athletes can now book sessions at TOCA Soccer centers in British Columbia, Illinois, and California with just a few clicks online. More locations will be added soon.

"We are thrilled to join forces with TOCA Football, to broaden access for their availability and provide a seamless booking experience. CatchCorner welcomes TOCA's state-of-the-art locations to our platform, and we look forward to continuing to roll out additional locations," says CatchCorner CEO Jonathan Azouri.

In today's digital age, CatchCorner plays a vital role in seamlessly connecting athletes with top-notch training opportunities, fostering both accessibility and convenience on their sporting journeys.

By streamlining the booking process through its innovative platform, TOCA Football ensures that athletes can easily secure the premier training environments they need to reach their full potential.

This announcement builds on recent partnerships for the booking platform including The Rinks in Southern California, and FMC Ice Sports in Massachusetts. These collaborations further solidify CatchCorner's commitment to expanding access to sports facilities across North America.
