The collaboration of TravelingWiki Foundation to support food insecurity of flood victims follows up on the non profit work of Jonathan Sutter, the CEO of TravelingWiki Foundation, who has volunteered personally for food insecurity efforts in 14 US States and two Continents.

TravelingWiki Foundation's non-profit work in North Carolina expands upon prior work in Pennsylvania, including the recent addition of TravelingWiki Foundation's free resources in 11 languages to the Philadelphia Autism Project, in cooperation with Drexel University; and presenting at PNC Park with the Pittsburgh Pirates on June 22, 2024 and August 4, 2024 to promote Autism awareness and Special Needs awareness, respectively, via themed baseball games (coordinated via many organizations throughout Pennsylvania) that also raised money for local area charities. Recently, TravelingWiki Foundation announced three expanded lines offering free phone-based resources: (1) 641-7-AUTISM; (2) 224-NO-BULLY; and (3) 781-2-TRAVEL. In addition, services are offered via @TravelingWiki on YouTube.com. TravelingWiki Foundation takes the offering of free services to Special Needs community members very seriously. The expanded phone lines are emblematic of the rapid growth of free services offered by TravelingWiki Foundation as well as the engagement from across the world as to our services offered in 11 languages.

The CEO of TravelingWiki Foundation, Jonathan Sutter, notes, "TravelingWiki is deeply committed to supporting the welfare of those we serve in all 50 States, and via collaboration in North Carolina, Pennsylvania and beyond to support other non-profit organizations.
