Type One, Inc., a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting families affected by type 1 diabetes (T1D), will host the 1st Annual Cornhole for a Cause tournament on Saturday, November 16, 2024. This exciting event will be held at Wolves Den in Pembroke, thanks to the generous donation of the venue by John Poirier, owner of Wolves Den Sports Complex.

John's contribution makes it possible for the community to come together for a fun-filled day of competition while raising essential funds for the Type One Cares Campaign, which provides financial assistance to families struggling with the costs of managing T1D, including insulin supplies and medical expenses.

"John Poirier and Wolves Den have gone above and beyond in supporting our cause," said Tyson Sunnerberg, COO of Type One, Inc. "This event is a fantastic way for the community to come together, enjoy friendly competition, and make a meaningful difference in the lives of families
