The new Arcade2TV-XR full-sized retro controller

Since the invention of the classic arcade machine, people have been fighting for the top score, smashing buttons, flicking the joystick, and enjoying the feel of a full-sized control panel. That panel was attached to the cabinet and paired with only one game. Arcade2TV-XR gets rid of any limitations by allowing players to connect to any console or game and adjust its design. Arcade2TV-XR is customizable to enhance any gaming setup with the ability to build unique key mappings, choose RGB lighting effects, interchangeable joystick knobs and restrictor gates, and wheels for easy movement (allowing you to reposition your arcade setup). Whether you prefer to game while standing or sitting, the Arcade2TV-XR offers four adjustable height settings, making it comfortable for gamers of all ages.
