

BUFFALO BILL'S HOUSE FILM LOCATION OF 'THE SILENCE OF THE LAMBS' IN NEW RYAN REYNOLDS' PRODUCED DOC 'THE HOUSE FROM...'

Final Buffalo Bill's House Guided Tours of the Season Available Halloween Weekend October 25 - 27

PERRYOPOLIS, PA, UNITED STATES, October 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Buffalo Bill's House, the real film location where the cinematic climax of the five-time Academy Award winning film The Silence of the Lambs was filmed, will be featured in the new documentary, The House From... which highlights famous homes from movies and TV series and includes interviews with owners and residents of these properties.

The documentary feature, The House From... counts Ryan Reynolds, known for his leading roles, including Deadpool, as executive producer.

Director Tommy Avallone's film is set to debut on Fubo and Reynolds' Maximum Effort Channel on Oct. 27, and it will be available via VOD platforms the next day. The documentary premieres at Kevin Smith's Smodcastle Film Festival in New Jersey on Oct. 25. Actor Jason Lee (Clerks II) narrates the film.

Kevin Smith is perhaps best known for his movie Clerks, and its subsequent sequel, Clerks II, where actor Jason Edward Mewes breaks into a spontaneous re-enactment of the dance performed by Buffalo Bill, the fictional serial killer in the film The Silence of the Lambs. With songwriter Q Lazzarus' famed song, Goodbye Horses, playing in the background as Mewes dances, it's an unforgettable humorous homage to the scene from the original film.

In addition to The Silence of the Lambs, the documentary features the famous horror home from Halloween, as well as homes from such projects as The Goonies, Home Alone, Friday, Pee-wee's Big Adventure, The Golden Girls, Breaking Bad, Twilight, Old School, Full House, Roseanne, Family Matters, A Christmas Story and Mrs. Doubtfire.

"We are thrilled Buffalo Bill's House is included in the upcoming documentary, The House From... as a celebration of pop culture and recognition of the house's contribution to and significant place within classic film history," said Chris Rowan, owner of Buffalo Bill's House. "Opening Buffalo Bill's House for seasonal tours for the public to enjoy is our way of sharing some of the magic of the film, The Silence of the Lambs, with fans across the world."

A popular attraction at Buffalo Bill's House is the interactive well set, located in the basement of the house. Constructed of real granite, the well is a replica of the infamous well in the movie and is uncannily realistic. Brave guests can physically enter into the four feet deep well for gruesome photo opps.

'Buffalo Bill's Workshop of Horrors,' also located in the basement of the house, is where Rowan (who is an art director and prop stylist by profession) has re-created the famous Buffalo Bill's dance set from the film complete with vintage Singer sewing machine, disco ball, four female mannequins dressed in original '80's garb to resemble the ones in the movie, as well as a full length mirror and Buffalo Bill style kimono for guests' use, designed to help fans "get their tuck on" while they live out their Buffalo Bill fantasies.

Rowan has also designed what he calls 'Buffalo Bill's Playhouse' on the top floor of the house, a retro-inspired game room that features a large screen TV that features an 800+ library of select 70's, 80's and 90's films on DVD and VHS. A self-described fan of 'physical media,' Rowan has tricked out the Playhouse with a host of full-sized classic arcade video games including Asteroids, Pac Man, Super Street Fighter, Terminator 2, Galaga, NBA Jam, Crazy Taxi, Mortal Kombat, The Simpsons, Centipede and Final Fight.

For the fourth year in a row, Buffalo Bill's House has been invited to participate in the Soldiers and Sailors Hall Silence of the Lambs Night 2024 on Friday, Oct. 11th from 5:30-10:00pm. The museum, located in Pittsburgh, is the site where the original "cage" scene with actor Anthony Hopkins, who played the terrifying Dr. Hannibal Lecter, takes place. Buffalo Bill's House will have gift souvenirs and apparel available for purchase at its booth.
