

Komodo and Santa Clara County FireSafe Council to Showcase Advanced Firefighting Technology

SAN JOSE, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CA, UNITED STATES, October 4, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Many states have experienced the most devastating fire season in their history. Unfortunately, the fire season is not over yet.

FireReady911 provides property owners with the potential to rapidly pre-treat their property and structures with Komodo's proven fire protection just prior to evacuation, as a wildfire threatens.”

Shawn Sahbari, CEO Komodo Fire Systems, Inc.

On Sunday, October 6, Northern California property owners and firefighters will be able to view and hear about some of the most recent, and most important wildfire technologies and resources available to homeowners, businesses, and first responders.

At the FireSafe Summit 2024 Komodo Fire Systems Inc. will collaborate with the Summit organizers, Santa Clara County FireSafe Council, to showcase some of the world's most advanced, and safest firefighting technologies.

Komodo's fire prevention systems have been developed to address a decades-long industry challenge to provide a truly safe and sustainable solution. The company will demonstrate that its product efficacy is second to none, and its non-toxic, plant & water-based formula will be critical to keeping first responders, people, and animals safe and healthy.

Shawn Sahbari, Founder and CEO of Komodo, enthusiastically points out; “our team will be discussing our new ‘FireReady911’ just-in-time wildfire system. The custom systems have been designed to provide property owners with the potential to rapidly pre-treat their property and structures with Komodo's proven fire protection just before evacuation, as a wildfire threatens.” Komodo's unrelenting commitment to the environment, safety, and health has resulted in a technology certified safe by USDA and the US Forest Service.

The inaugural FireSafe Summit is presented by The Santa Clara County FireSafe Council at Coyote Ranch in, San Jose, CA. According to Seth Schalet, CEO of the Santa Clara FireSafe Council, “We are excited to have Komodo as a vendor for our inaugural FireSafe Summit. We have been strategizing together on the potential for incorporating their professional-grade fire prevention and suppression technology into our services portfolio, and the FireSafe Summit provides Santa Clara County residents the opportunity to see product demos, meet and engage Komodo executives, and learn about Komodo's, non-toxic, plant-based firefighting technology."
