

Adam S. Kutner, Injury Attorneys Celebrate Cozine Elementary 4th Graders with Special Vegas Golden Knights Experience

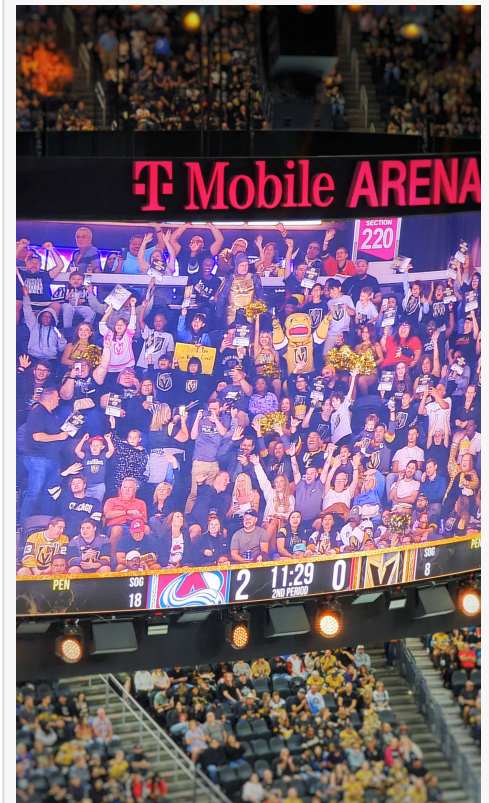

80 Students, Parents, and Teachers Honored as Winners of the 2024 Adam Kutner Cares Community Champion Classroom Award

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, October 4, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Adam S. Kutner, Injury Attorneys, a proud partner of the Vegas Golden Knights since the team's inception, proudly celebrated the 2024 Adam Kutner Cares Community Champion Classroom Award winners by welcoming 80 4th grade students, parents, guardians, teachers, and staff from Clark County School District's Cozine Elementary School to an unforgettable night at T-Mobile Arena. This special award, for which the class was nominated by their teacher, was selected from hundreds of nominations received for the Adam Kutner Cares Award, recognizing the outstanding dedication and achievements of Ms. Perse and her students.

The evening was filled with excitement, starting with a roundtrip journey by two buses from Cozine Elementary to the arena, where the entire group was treated to complimentary tickets to watch the Vegas Golden Knights in action. Adding to the excitement, Teacher Perse received a special honor by riding the Adam S. Kutner, Injury Attorneys Zamboni during the game, while the entire group received a heartwarming shout-out from Chance, the Vegas Golden Knights mascot, and the cheerleaders, making the night even more memorable.

"We are thrilled to have celebrated this amazing group of students and educators," said Adam S. Kutner, founder of Adam S. Kutner, Injury Attorneys. "This award highlights the remarkable impact our schools and teachers have on shaping our future, and it's an honor to support and reward their dedication."

Throughout the evening, students and their guests enjoyed the thrill of the game, with LEVY
