About Beth Fischer:

Beth Fischer grew up a typical girl, with the dream of someday getting married and having a healthy, beautiful family of her own. She imagined herself married to a man who would be her best friend, partner, and support system, until death parted them. And in 2001 that dream came true, when she married her prince, and went on to have two beautiful daughters! But 17 years later her dream shattered, and her nightmare began with the disclosure of her husband's many infidelities.

Betrayal depression kicked in and there were days when she simply didn't think she could go on. After almost three years of living in her own hell, Beth finally woke up, took control of her life, and embarked on the most incredible healing journey. And so did her husband. Today they are living out her childhood dream, for the very first time, while she is helping others navigate a clear path through similar traumas.
