Pharmaceuticals is proud to announce a strategic partnership with Releaf, the UK's fastest-growing medical cannabis clinic, to bring innovative cannabis-based treatments to Releaf's rapidly expanding patient base.

As part of the collaboration, SOMAI Pharmaceuticals will provide Releaf patients with exclusive access to its Indica Essentials product line. They will also have other formulations available in the future, including our mint line, specifically designed to enhance patient outcomes and compliance. SOMAI's broadest cannabis-based extract portfolio focuses on meeting patient needs by offering improved performance and better-tasting treatments. Each formula combines various THC/CBD ratios, genetics, and terpene profiles, addressing various medical conditions.

"At SOMAI, we are constantly innovating to meet the evolving needs of patients worldwide," said Michael Sassano, the founder and interim CEO at SOMAI Pharmaceuticals. "Partnering with Releaf allows us to extend our reach to thousands of patients in the UK who can now access our high-quality, full-spectrum products, helping them improve their quality of life through tailored medical cannabis treatments. With over 100+ extract SKUs and an array of indoor non-irradiated flower, SOMAI offers one of the most comprehensive portfolios to address diverse patient needs."

Releaf stands out in the UK market, being the fastest-growing medical cannabis clinic in the UK, with over 3,000 new patients joining the platform each month. Releaf has vertically integrated into the supply chain, including the only UK-grown cannabis-based medicinal product (CBMP) and a commitment to ensuring that treatment plans are never interrupted. Releaf's Patient Charter guarantees medication consistency and fast delivery, making it a trusted medical cannabis provider in the UK.

This new partnership will bolster Releaf's mission to provide best-in-class healthcare, offering timely, evidence-based treatment options for patients seeking relief from chronic conditions.

The logo is centered within a white rectangular box that has a thin grey border and a light grey gradient at the bottom.

"Since launching Releaf in February '24 after two years of planning and investment, it's been so important for Releaf to form deep strategic alliances with healthcare-focused providers. SOMAÍ ticked all of our boxes: long-term ambition, quality products, innovation paths that are focussed on healthcare and quality of life improvement for patients, to name but a few," said Tim Kirby, Chief Executive Officer at Releaf. The UK market has stagnated since legislation changed to make CBPM available in the UK in 2018 due to the incumbent providers' inability to go to market effectively and educate and inform the CBPM naive. Releaf has redefined the sector in the UK, and with partners such as SOMAÍ in lockstep as to market approach, we are set to be as big as the entire sector is today (c. 35,000 patients) within 12 months at our current patient onboarding volumes."

Both SOMAÍ and Releaf share a commitment to educating patients on the benefits of medical cannabis through evidence-based information and making life-changing treatments accessible. With Releaf's rapidly growing patient base and SOMAÍ's innovative product offerings, the partnership promises to enhance the UK's medical cannabis landscape and deliver positive health outcomes for thousands of patients.
