

Kyla Imani Returns with New Single 'In the Hills,' Feat. Hip Hop Star Karrahboo

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, October 8, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kyla Imani, the rising singer-songwriter R&B phenom whose singles "Chosen" and "Crush" captured hearts and topped charts with their organic success, is back with a brand-new track that promises to elevate her already impressive repertoire. This time, she joins forces with hip-hop sensation Karrahboo for their highly anticipated collaboration, "In the Hills."

Following the overwhelming response last month to "Crush" and "Chosen" which showcased Kyla Imani's unique blend of pop and R&B, fans have eagerly awaited her next move. "In the Hills" marks a bold step forward, seamlessly blending Kyla's soulful melodies and raspy flow with Karrahboo's dynamic rap verses, creating a sound that is both fresh and infectious.

Kyla Imani expressed her excitement about the collaboration: "As a NYC girl living in L.A., I wanted to share stories on the vibes up "In The Hills." Working with Karrahboo was important to me. We are very different but we share a passion for pushing boundaries and having a point to prove, especially now. 'In the Hills' is about embracing life's adventures, making wise decisions and the thrill of flying to new heights—something everyone can relate to."

Karrahboo, renowned for her powerful lyricism and captivating stage presence, has been making headlines recently following her departure from the Concrete Boys alongside Lil Yachty. Embracing the change, Kyla Imani's still riding with her, holding it down no matter what. Now, Karrahboo is gearing up for her upcoming tour with Latto, featuring special guest Mariah The Scientist.
