

InjureFree and iSportz Launch Strategic Partnership

InjureFree continues to grow and expand through strategic partnerships adding iSportz to the strategic partnership roster.

SOLANA BEACH, CA, UNITED STATES, October 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- InjureFree, the leader in sports safety and injury management, is launching yet another new strategic partnership with iSportz. iSportz is a leading provider of innovative sports management software solutions.

InjureFree will provide Athlete Safety products and services, Sports Medicine Placement services, and more to iSportz customers and users.

InjureFree has seen a year of tremendous growth with the launch of new products and services that drive efficiency for organizations within youth and amateur sports, primarily around Athlete Safety. This includes the launch and growth of InjureFree’s Sports Medicine Placement service which guides customers on the right staffing for events to create the safest conditions for participation, then provide end-to-end staffing support for customers. iSportz will offer this key product, along with others, to their clients.

Strategic Partnerships have become a core part of our distribution at InjureFree and we pride ourselves on selecting the right Strategic Partners”
