

Undefeated Bay Area Phoenix Storms FIBA WBLA, Heads to Final Four in Colombia – A Historic Moment for Women’s Basketball

The Bay Area Phoenix, undefeated in the FIBA WBLA, heads to the Final Four in Medellin, Colombia, making history as the first US team in the tournament

OAKLAND, CA, UNITED STATES, October 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a journey that has captured the hearts of fans across the Bay, the Bay Area Phoenix went undefeated in the FIBA WBLA Preliminary rounds, securing their place in the league’s prestigious FIBA WBLA Final Four! Set to compete on November 1-2, 2024, in Medellin, Colombia, the Phoenix are preparing to face off against some of FIBA’s most elite women’s basketball teams. But this milestone isn’t just about the Bay Area; it’s a monumental moment for the US. The Phoenix are the first US-based team to receive an invitation to this tournament and proudly carry their country's pride.

Bay Area Phoenix (USA) capped off an undefeated run in group play with a narrow 53-52 victory over fellow quarterfinalists Indeportes Antioquia (COL) on Sunday night at the Coliseo Ivan de Bedout in Medellín, Colombia.

In competing against some of the world’s top teams, the Bay Area Phoenix are breaking boundaries — and their success is resonating far beyond their local community.

Their journey to the FIBA WBLA Final Four showcases the dominance of women’s basketball in the US. As part of the Women’s Premier Basketball Association, the Bay Area Phoenix is made up of former NCAA and professional athletes who now serve the Bay Area as lawyers, agents, creatives — brought together by the WPBA, and driven to both represent and elevate the longevity of women in the game.

This opportunity is about more than a championship—it’s about setting a powerful example for young athletes nationwide, showing them that the world stage is within reach.

As the Bay Area Phoenix sets its sights on Medellín, they're calling on their community and supporters to help make this trip possible. Fundraising efforts are underway to cover essential travel expenses, ensuring these talented women have every opportunity to shine on the world stage.
