LAKEVILLE, MN, UNITED STATES,

October 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Minnesota Hospice, a Medicare rated 5-star hospice provider is proud to announce that it has been named Best Hospice in Minnesota by the Star Tribune as part of their 2024 Minnesota's Best Awards. This prestigious recognition underscores Minnesota Hospice's dedication to providing compassionate and personalized care that celebrates life and honors the individual journey of every person they serve.

We are deeply honored to be recognized as best hospice by the Star Tribune. This award is a testament to our incredible team's dedication to providing compassionate care for people in our community”

Ken Haglind, CEO and Co-Founder, Minnesota Hospice

The Minnesota's Best Awards are determined by the votes of Star Tribune readers, celebrating the businesses and services that stand out in the community. This year, Minnesota Hospice was chosen as the bronze provider in the hospice category, marking a significant milestone for the organization.

Ken Haglind, CEO and Co-Founder of Minnesota Hospice, expressed his gratitude for the award, stating, "Being named Best Hospice by the Star Tribune is a profound honor for our team. It reflects our unwavering commitment to providing exceptional hospice care that goes beyond medical needs, embracing the emotional, spiritual, and physical well-being of each person and their families."

Minnesota Hospice's approach to care is rooted in their mission to provide love, compassion, and dignity at the end of life. With a focus on personalized care, the hospice offers a range of services designed to meet the unique needs of each individual, from medical care to emotional and spiritual support.

The organization's dedication to excellence is further highlighted by its Medicare 5-star rating, making it one of only four hospices in the entire state of Minnesota to receive this distinction.

Additionally, the Minnesota Hospice ranks in the top 25% nationally by WellSky for hospice agencies, a reflection of their commitment to delivering superior hospice care and achieving outstanding caregiver satisfaction.
