

Gov. Brian Kemp and Congressional Candidate Wayne Johnson At Event To Support Noah Harbuck For Georgia State House

MACON, GA, UNITED STATES, October 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Commonsense Congressional Candidate Wayne Johnson joined Georgia Gov. Brian Kemp and other state officials at an event to support Noah Harbuck, who is the Republican nominee for State House District 145. The event was held at Fincher's B-B-Q in Macon.

Georgia Senate President Pro-Tempore John Kennedy, Georgia Insurance Commissioner John King, State Representatives Dale Washburn, and Robert Dickey, along with State Representative candidate Calvin Palmer were all also in attendance to support Harbuck, who owns an insurance agency in Forsyth.

"Noah Harbuck is a very good man with a true heart for people," said Wayne Johnson. "This belief was expressed by all officials in attendance."

"It was good to talk with Gov. Kemp," Johnson said, who said Gov. Kemp's presence resulted in a large turnout from the GOP faithful and the media. "Gov. Kemp shared how the state is working with the Federal government on disaster relief for Georgia from Hurricane Helene, and said he and President Biden have talked and are working cooperatively to ensure the needed Federal support gets to Georgia."
