

Pawsome Pace Control Kit by Liu Liang and Huang Lixia Wins Bronze in A' Pet and Animal Product Awards

Innovative Pet Food Bowl Set Recognized for Excellence in Design and Functionality by Prestigious International Jury

COMO, CO, ITALY, October 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly respected and well-recognized award in the field of pet care design, has announced that the Pawsome Pace Control Kit by Liu Liang and Huang Lixia has been awarded the Bronze A' Design Award in the Pet Care, Toys, Supplies and Products for Animals Design category. This prestigious recognition highlights the exceptional design and functionality of the Pawsome Pace Control Kit, which aims to improve the wellness and eating habits of pets.

The Pawsome Pace Control Kit addresses a significant need within the pet care industry by providing a solution to help pets control their eating speed and promote healthier eating habits. This innovative design aligns with current trends in pet care, focusing on the well-being and comfort of animals. The kit's practical benefits, such as its compatibility with various food bowl sizes and its ability to reduce the risk of health issues associated with fast eating, make it a valuable addition to the pet care market.

The award-winning Pawsome Pace Control Kit comprises a figure "8" shaped silicone bowl, a feed divider, and a slow feeding mat for liquid food. The kit's flexible design allows for various combinations and compatibility with other products, making it a versatile solution for pet owners. The feed divider's fan shape and softness ensure adaptability to most food bowl sizes available on the market, while the silicone material addresses common issues such as overturning and noise.

Winning the Bronze A' Design Award serves as a motivation for Liu Liang and Huang Lixia to continue their pursuit of excellence and innovation in pet care design. This recognition may inspire future projects and designs that prioritize pet health, comfort, and user-friendly interfaces. The Pawsome Pace Control Kit showcases the potential for innovative design to positively impact the lives of pets and their owners, setting a new standard for the industry.
