Toad the Wet Sprocket originally had a show with Barenaked Ladies in Asheville on October 18th. After the hurricane hit, our show was cancelled, but we knew we wanted to do something to try to help.”

was cancelled, and we knew we wanted to do something to try to help”, commented Glen Phillips, “We ran the idea by Barenaked Ladies who said yes immediately, and then the rest just took off from there. We are so grateful to our extended music friends and family for taking part and helping to get the word out so we can raise as much as possible for the charities, and hopefully provide a little relief to all impacted by the hurricanes.”

Message of Solidarity: Our intent is to convey a powerful message of support, letting those impacted know that we see them, stand with them, and are committed to helping in any way we can.

“After hearing first-hand accounts about the situation on the ground, both in terms of devastation and remarkable resilience, we knew we had to help, not only to raise funds, but also to shine a little light during a very dark time for so many”, noted Annie Balliro, “What was remarkable was the immediate volunteering of support so that we could actually pull this thing off... it started with Glen, Dean and Todd and then just one after the other a stellar line-up of talent. We are so fortunate to have our friend Amy Nelson as a producer, and our incredible uniphigood pack – Jess, Leigh, Mel, DeeDee, Chelle, Emi & Kyle, without whom this event would not have gotten to where it is now”.

Charity Partners: The event will spotlight our dedicated charity partners who have been working tirelessly since the hurricanes struck. These organizations have been at the forefront of search and rescue operations, providing critical aid, and supporting relief and recovery efforts with food, medical supplies and shelter for humans and animals. Charity partners include; World Central Kitchen, Direct Relief, Brother Wolf Animal Rescue and Feeding the Carolinas.

Donations: We ask viewers to help by visiting our webpage (www.SonicSunshineBenefit.com) and donate. These donations will go directly to, and 100%, to the charities.
