

The Cannabis Business Advisors CEO Sara Gullickson Named 'Advisor of the Year' by Benzinga Cannabis Awards

The international cannabis business consulting firm's CEO leads one of the longest standing advisor groups in the industry.

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, October 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sara Gullickson, the esteemed CEO of The Cannabis Business Advisors (CBA), renowned for her expertise in securing over 75 licenses nationwide, has been named 'Advisor of the Year' by Benzinga Cannabis Awards. The award show, which recognizes excellence in leadership, journalism, entrepreneurship, and advocacy within the cannabis industry, took place at the Benzinga Capital Conference in Chicago on October 8, 2024.

Named 40 Under 40 by the Business Journal and among the Top Women Set to Dominate the International Cannabis Space by Benzinga, Gullickson has secured more than 75 licenses in over 30 states and five countries. Along with her advisory work, she has presented at numerous cannabis, real estate, and business conferences.

"I've dedicated myself to this work for years and it's always great to see that hard work pay off with recognition," said Gullickson. "Thank you to Benzinga for this honor and for all of my wonderful clients who have allowed me to advise them over the years."

Following her award at Benzinga Capital Conference, Gullickson is slated as a featured speaker at MJBizCon. She will speak in the 'Raising Canna Capital in a Bear Market: Insights on REITs, Capital Raise Trends, and Leveraging Debt Financing' panel in Room 1 at 1 p.m.

Founded in 2014, the CWCBE expo is a business-to-business trade show providing a forum for cannabis dispensary owners, growers, suppliers, medical professionals, investors, regulators, legal counsel, and entrepreneurs to connect and learn.
