WEST DES MOINES, IA, UNITED STATES,
October 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Gershman Mortgage has been named the 1st Place winner in the 2024 Healthiest Employers of St. Louis, an awards program that celebrates organizations prioritizing the well-being of its employees. Competing in the 200 to 999 Employees category, Gershman secured the top spot, showcasing its dedication to creating a supportive and healthy work environment.

The recognition is a testament to our dedication to the well-being of every team member, including those at our West Des Moines branch.”

President Adam Mason

Healthiest Employers recognized Gershman Mortgage for its comprehensive approach to employee wellness, addressing physical, mental, financial, and social aspects of well-being. The company provides a variety of resources, including stress management techniques, mindfulness training, and access to employee assistance programs. For mental well-being, Gershman maintains an inclusive environment characterized by open communication and respect for diversity, alongside a strict policy against harassment or discrimination. Financially, Gershman Mortgage offers competitive salaries, robust retirement matching, and financial education, in addition to an employee home loan program. Socially, the company promotes a collaborative work environment, celebrates employee achievements, and recognizes accomplishments both within and beyond the workplace.

These wellness efforts are particularly evident at its West Des Moines location. The local branch, positioned in the vibrant economic hub of West Des Moines, reflects the city's dynamic spirit and community-oriented culture. Known for its welcoming neighborhoods, including Jordan Creek
