Growth Driver of The Pet Friendly Hotel Market

The growing trend of pet ownership is likely to boost the development of the pet-friendly hotel market in the future. Pet ownership is defined as the responsibility of caring for an animal, usually a domesticated species, for companionship, work, or leisure. The rise in pet ownership is influenced by social trends, urbanization, and an increase in young adults postponing parenthood. Pet-friendly hotels cater to pet owners by facilitating enjoyable and stress-free travel experiences with their pets, thus strengthening the bond between pets and their owners and promoting a lifestyle inclusive of pets.
