

Unlock Creativity: Acting Classes for Kids and Teens at Michelle Danner Acting School

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Michelle Danner Acting School is excited to announce their new series of acting classes for kids and teens. These classes are designed to unlock creativity and help students develop their acting ability and improvisational skills. This renowned acting school teaches both in person and online classes for teens and kids, led by acclaimed acting coach and film director Michelle Danner.

"The acting classes for teens and kids at Michelle Danner Acting School are not just about learning lines and hitting marks. They are designed to foster creativity and build important life skills that will benefit students both on and off the stage. Through a combination of exercises, games, and scene work, students will learn to build stage presence, patience, self-confidence, and strong communication skills. These skills are not only essential for students seeking a career in acting but also for children and teens that would like to become more comfortable in social circumstances."
