

John B. Wren's "an Trodai" : A Gripping Historical Saga of Ireland's Warrior Legacy

A journey through the blood-soaked battlefields and turbulent political landscape of 10th-century Ireland

DUBLIN, LEINSTER, IRELAND, October 15, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- An Trodai, the latest novel by acclaimed author John B. Wren, takes readers on an epic journey through the blood-soaked battlefields and turbulent political landscape of 10th-century Ireland. Spanning generations, "an Trodai" follows the rise of a warrior dynasty during one of the most pivotal eras in Irish history, from the Viking invasion of Connaught in 893 AD to the rise of Clan MacLaoghaire in 1042 AD.

Set against the backdrop of real historical events, "an Trodai" intertwines the destinies of Scolai, Daigh, Laoghaire, and Conall, fierce warriors fighting for the survival of their clan and the future of Ireland. The novel brings to life legendary battles, such as the Viking raids and the rise of High King Brian Boru, culminating in the legendary Battle of Clontarf.

Originally published as a trilogy, "an Trodai" has now been combined into a single, cohesive novel that captures the grit and glory of this era. Wren expertly blends historical accuracy with masterful storytelling, making readers feel the weight of swords in battle, the pull of family duty, and the ever-present influence of fate and prophecy.

John B. Wren, known for his work in thrillers, mysteries, and historical fiction, started his writing journey in 2009 after a successful career in engineering and construction. Since then, his books have gripped readers with their rich detail, intense action, and human complexity. His latest
