

ROOT Brands Donates Products for those Affected by Recent Hurricanes Helene and Milton

SAN ANTONIO, TX, UNITED STATES, October 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ROOT Brands, a wellness company dedicated to creating better lives and better bodies, has stepped up to support communities affected by Hurricane Helene. In collaboration with Dr. Christina Rahm's Rahm Foundation, the company has donated tens of thousands of dollars worth of products to assist recovery teams and impacted residents in and around Asheville, NC.

The donation includes several pallets of the brand's best-sellers, including ZeroIn, ReLive Greens and Natural Barrier Support. These products are designed to support health and wellness, which is crucial during times of crisis and recovery.

"ROOT is all about community. We will continuously put our money where our mouth is," said Christina Rahm, Chairman of the Board for Rahm Foundation and Chief Product Formulator for ROOT Brands. "Our core values are built on recognizing the different needs of humanity, and this donation is a testament to our commitment to those values."

Founded with a mission to recreate the path to wellness, ROOT Brands combines cutting-edge health solutions with a philanthropic purpose. The company aims to tackle some of the biggest health challenges faced today, including environmental toxins, stress, and life pressures.
