

When W2s Are Sent Out in 2024 & 2025 Announced by Harbor Financial

It is important for individuals to understand when W2s are sent out.

TRAVERSE CITY, MI, UNITED STATES, October 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As the end of the year approaches, many employees are eagerly awaiting the arrival of their W2 forms.

These crucial documents contain essential information about an individual's earnings and taxes, making them a vital part of the tax-filing process. It is important for individuals to understand when W2s are sent out and what steps they should take if they have not received theirs.

When to Expect W-2 Form

W2 forms are typically sent out by employers to their employees by January 31st of the following year. This deadline is set by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and is designed to ensure that individuals have sufficient time to prepare and file their tax returns. Employers are required to provide W2 forms to all employees who earned more than $600 during the tax year.

In the event that an individual has not received their W2 form by mid-February, it is crucial for them to take action. The first step should be to contact their employer or the company's human resources department to inquire about the status of their W2. If the W2 was sent but not received, the employer may be able to provide a duplicate or assist in resolving the issue.

For individuals who have made every effort to obtain their W2 from their employer to no avail, the next step is to contact the IRS. The IRS can assist in obtaining the necessary information to file a tax return, even if the W2 has not been received. It is important to have all relevant documentation and information available when contacting the IRS, including personal identification and details about the employer.

Furthermore, with the growing trend of electronic W2 distribution, individuals should also check their email inboxes and online employee portals for electronic copies of their W2 forms. Employers are increasingly opting for electronic distribution as a more efficient and environmentally friendly alternative to traditional paper forms.

In conclusion, W2 forms are typically sent out by employers by January 31st, and individuals should take proactive steps to ensure they receive this important document.

By staying informed about the W2 distribution process and knowing what to do if a W2 is not received, individuals can avoid unnecessary delays in filing their tax returns and receiving any potential refunds.
