the values the 'Best of Los Angeles Award' community stands for."

Bertha Mae, born in Hope, Arkansas, perfected a brownie recipe that would become a beloved family heirloom. Over the years, this cherished recipe was passed down from mother to daughter, reaching Wendy Pomerantz through her mother. Each generation added their personal touch, ensuring the recipe's enduring appeal and preserving its legacy.

Today, Wendy Pomerantz and her family continue this rich tradition through Bertha Mae's Brownie Co., a company dedicated to sharing delicious treats with the world. While they have introduced new flavors and seasonal offerings, the heart of the business remains Bertha Mae's original recipe. Every batch of the Original brownies stays true to the generations-old recipe, crafted with the same care and passion that Bertha Mae put into it.

Bertha Mae's Brownie Co. represents more than just a business—it celebrates family, quality, and the timeless joy of a homemade treat. Wendy's brand expansion, including seasonal favorites like Pumpkin Spice Brownies, carries the legacy of a recipe that has stood the test of time.
