

Pamela PerryGoulardt 'Best Arthouse Writer of the Year' ICEBERG CINEMA and LITERATURE Awards, and WILD FILMMAKER

SIMSBURY, CT, UNITED STATES, October 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The prestigious Iceberg Cinema & Literature Awards, sponsored by WILD FILMMAKER, have announced Pamela PerryGoulardt as the winner of the 'Best Arthouse Writer of the Year' for her script "Darker Realities". The awards ceremony, held on Saturday night at the historic Orpheum Theatre, celebrated the best of independent cinema and literature, focusing on arthouse works.

Pamela PerryGoulardt's "Darker Realities" stood out among the other nominees for its unique and thought-provoking storyline. The script follows the journey of a young Goth Librarian who accidentally brings back the angry ghost of Edgar Allan Poe, who insists on her helping him avenge his brutal murder at the hands of a jealous rival. With its captivating plot and well-developed characters, "Darker Realities" has received critical acclaim from industry professionals and audiences alike.

Upon receiving the award, Pamela PerryGoulardt expressed her gratitude and excitement, stating, "I am truly honored to receive this recognition from the Iceberg Cinema & Literature Awards. As an arthouse writer, it is always a challenge to create something that is both thought-provoking and entertaining. I am grateful to have had the opportunity to bring this story to life, and I hope it will continue to resonate with audiences."

The Iceberg Award is dedicated to the writing technique invented by Nobel Prize winner Ernest Hemingway, known as the 'Iceberg Theory.'
