ABOUT TORI MARTIN

Born in sunny Ft. Walton Beach, Florida this military brat lived in several states before landing in Azle, Texas at the age of seven. She spent most of her life just outside of the Dallas/Fort Worth area where she began singing in the local church choir. She cut her teeth on classics from Johnny Cash and Tammy Wynette courtesy of her grandfather "Paw-Paw" and by the age of 14 she was performing at Opry houses all over Texas. In 2014, Renegade Radio Nashville named her one of the "New Faces of Country." Martin competed on Season 14 of ABC TV's American Idol but departed the show in the Hollywood round. Taking all her experiences and a big dose of courage,

Tori moved to Nashville in 2017. It didn't take long before the talented singer/songwriter found herself co-writing with some of the city's famous tunesmiths, and it's a path that has felt blessed from the start. A chance meeting at a mixer led to her working with producer Bill Warner and she signed to the Nashville based indie label, LuckySky Music shortly thereafter. Now, the two creatives are carving a path that is uniquely her own. With single releases like "What Would Dolly Do," "Steppin' In It" and "Lucky," which reached #42 on the Billboard Indicator chart, Tori's modern traditional Country sound is steeped in her roots as a true-blue Texan singer. Her latest single, "Lost In The Country," is currently Top 10 on the Texas Regional Radio Report and Top 25 and rising on the CDXTraction Texas Chart. Tori was named one of the "Future Faces" of 2024 at the Texas Regional Radio Music Awards. When she is not on the road, Tori enjoys antiques, decorating and spending time with her husband and their two golden retrievers, Duke and Daisy and French bulldog, Lucky.
