

KIMITAKE and Valerj Pobega Host Intimate Trunk Show in West Hollywood

Bringing Fine Jewelry and Couture Together for a Day of Stylish Connections

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 15, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- KIMITAKE, known for its exquisite 18K gold and diamond jewelry, collaborated with acclaimed Italian artist Valerj Pobega for an intimate trunk show at the historic former site of Spago Restaurant in West Hollywood. The event showcased a stunning blend of KIMITAKE's luxury jewelry and Pobega's hand-painted couture gowns, attracting several high-profile stylists and industry insiders.

Valerj Pobega, whose work has been worn by iconic figures like Madonna, Lady Gaga, Beyoncé, and Selena Gomez, brought a unique artistic touch to the event. Known for her stunning, hand-painted couture, Pobega's designs have been featured in Vogue, ELLE, WWD, and even showcased at LACMA. Guests were invited to enjoy this special collaboration where KIMITAKE's timeless jewelry pieces perfectly complemented Pobega's artistic creations.

Notable attendees included celebrity stylists Maryam Malakpour and Cristina Acevedo. Malakpour, who styles actress Jodie Foster for the Emmy Awards, and Acevedo, stylist to singer Rachel Platten, both expressed interest in featuring KIMITAKE jewelry in their upcoming projects. The event also welcomed Randi Molofsky, owner of For Future Reference, a leading jewelry brand development agency. Molofsky praised KIMITAKE's intricate craftsmanship and attention to detail, adding to the positive feedback received throughout the day.
