

Join the Movement for Equity in Transportation: Community Transport Providers Call for Action

When our state government subsidise the transportation services that mobility-impaired persons receive, equality should be a given.

BRISBANE, QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA, October 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Community transport providers are rallying for fair treatment and equality in transportation services, urging the public to join this crucial movement. By advocating for equitable policies, every small action contributes to a larger initiative that can reshape the future of transportation equity.

Compare the fare. Play Fare State Govs.

In a bold campaign launch, the community transport providers have released a compelling video highlighting the challenges and inequities faced in current transportation services. They invite everyone to watch and share this important message, using the hashtag #playfarestategovs to amplify its reach and impact.

Why do you give the taxi industry a $25 lift rate for every wheelchair lift and community transport, you give us nothing. It's time to play fair. Lift rates for community transport. They're needed.”
